ARI SCHONBRUN

A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM THE WORLD TRADE CENTRE

When the first plane hit the World Trade Center on September 11, Ari Schonbrun was on the 78th floor on his way to his 110th floor office at the Wall Street Firm Cantor Fitzgerald. 658 of his co-workers died in the terrorist attack. Ari survived.

Ari, an orthodox Jew, tells the inspiring story of how he got out of the inferno and saved the life of a badly-burned co-worker. He tells about the amazing miracles that saved his life, and, most of all, what he learned from that terrifying day.
